1 THE WITNESS: Yes.

2 BY MR. MADDEN:

3 Q. Okay. And so there's video display ads
4 that would display within a standard web page display
5 ad impression, right?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. And then there's video display ads
8 that would play within a video on a web page, right?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. And so would the video display ads
11 that play within a video on a web page be in-stream
12 video ads?

13 MS. FORKNER: Object to scope.

14 THE WITNESS: So "in-stream" refers to ads
15 that are shown within the actual -- are stitched into
16 the actual video content itself. "Out-stream" refers
17 to what would normally be a display ad that just shows
18 a video ad on the page.

19 BY MR. MADDEN:

20 Q. Okay. So AdSense -- strike that.

21 Does AdSense currently support in-stream
22 video ad placements?

23 A. So AdSense is actually a family of 24 products. The product that I'm responsible for is 25 referred to as AdSense for Content and that does not
